

Coalition America Renews Relationship with Musketeeer to Offer Streamlined Claims Repricing and Adjudication Solution for Benefit Administrators

Atlanta, GA, September 25, 2007 -- Musketeeer Group, Inc. and Coalition America, Inc. (CAI) have renewed their alliance to provide a unique repricing solution for Musketeeer customers. The partnership streamlines and speeds the claim repricing process, while also offering greater administrative and medical claim savings. CAI's integration with Musketeeer Group includes automated claims selection, automated processing of claims, as well as expedited adjudication of repriced claims.

"We have had a long and positive relationship with Musketeeer. CAI selected Musketeeer as one of its strategic alliance partners because of their excellent reputation in the market, and their flexible technology," said Scott Smith, president, Coalition America, Inc.

"Our relationship with Coalition America is one of our oldest and best. Working with them to implement our EDI solution has been extremely easy." said Steve Fehr, president, Musketeeer Group, Inc.
