Coalition America Earns Prestigious TECH50 Award

Atlanta, GA, May 26, 2004... Coalition America, Inc. (CAI), the leader in medical claim savings, was recognized by the Atlanta Business Chronicle and Deloitte & Touche, LLP as one of Georgia's top 50 technology companies, ranked by revenue.

"We are very excited to be recognized again for this award," said Sean Smith, Chairman & CEO for Coalition America, Inc. "We have always considered ourselves a leader in our market space, and it is gratifying to see that we also continue to be a leader in our business community," said Smith.

CAI increased its position in the TECH50 from number 48 in 2002 to 44 for 2004. The TECH50 was last compiled in 2002.

About CAI

Coalition America, Inc. (CAI) is the leader in medical claim savings utilizing proprietary technology, PPOs (preferred provider organizations) and negotiations to deliver significant discounts on group health and workers' compensation medical bills. Clients interface with CAI through HIPAA compliant EDI (electronic data interchange) or the Internet to reprice in-network and out-of-network medical claims. CAI generates significant savings through the integration of Primary PPOs, Wrap PPOs, Supplemental PPOs, and direct provider negotiations.

The Atlanta-based healthcare savings company directly services over 300 clients representing more than 12,000 businesses nationwide, offering a one-stop solution for discounting medical bills while reducing administrative costs through technology. CAI has saved its clients over 600 million dollars since its inception in 1995.
